

Declare your post-election declaration on no foreign influence

Due on 30 Sep

By 30 Sep, not later than the 7th day after the election result is published in the Government Gazette

Submit online

Singaporean politics is a matter only for Singaporeans to decide and should be free from foreign influence. To guard against foreign interference at Singapore elections, every candidate must submit to the Returning Officer a declaration that they did not cause or encourage any foreign influence in their campaign and had taken all practicable measures to ensure that their campaign did not benefit from foreign influence.

You must give to the Returning Officer a declaration that there was no foreign influence in your election not later than the 7th day after the final election result is published in the Government Gazette.
