

Prepare the Nomination Paper

Due on dd mmm

By dd mmm (2 days before Nomination Day)

Submit in person

The Nomination Paper contains the details of the candidate/group of candidates, names and NRIC numbers of the subscribers (i.e. the proposer, seconder and at least 4 assentors) who must be in the Register of Electors for the electoral division that the candidate/group of candidates seek election in, and a statutory declaration.

You can keep up to 4 drafts. Your election agent will also be able to view and edit all drafts.

You may choose to submit your drafts for early checks by the Elections Department to ensure that they are in order. Submission of the draft Nomination Papers for early checks will be available until the day before the eve of Nomination Day.

Once early checks are completed, you can proceed to have the verified Nomination Paper attested to. Attestation must be done by the candidate and his subscribers, before a Commissioner for Oaths (CFO) or a Justice of the Peace (JP).

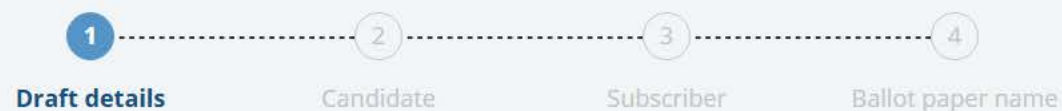

You must deliver the Nomination Paper (original signed copy and in duplicate) in person to the election officials at the Nomination Centre on Nomination Day.

Prepare the Nomination Paper

Due on dd mmm

 By dd mmm (2 days before Nomination Day)

 Submit in person

 The Nomination Paper contains the details of the candidate/group of candidates, names and NRIC numbers of the subscribers (i.e. the proposer, seconder and at least 4 assentors) who must be in the Register of Electors for the electoral division that the candidate/group of candidates seek election in, and a statutory declaration.

You can keep up to 4 drafts. Your election agent will also be able to view and edit all drafts.

You may choose to submit your drafts for early checks by the Elections Department to ensure that they are in order. Submission of the draft Nomination Papers for early checks will be available until the day before the eve of Nomination Day.

Once early checks are completed, you can proceed to have the verified Nomination Paper attested to. Attestation must be done by the candidate and his subscribers, before a Commissioner for Oaths (CFO) or a Justice of the Peace (JP).

You must deliver the Nomination Paper (original signed copy and in duplicate) in person to the election officials at the Nomination Centre on Nomination Day.
