

Submit your post-election disclosures of reportable political donations

Due on dd mmm

 By dd mmm, not later than the 31st day after the election result is published in the Government Gazette

 Submit online

 The election agent must submit the post-election disclosures of reportable political donations to the Registrar, Registry of Political Donations, regarding all reportable political donations received and accepted by or on behalf of the candidate during the relevant reporting period (i.e. from the date of the election agent's pre-election declaration to the date of the post-election declaration, both dates inclusive).

As the details of all reportable political donations would have been set out in the return respecting election expenses, both the election agent and the candidate are required to disclose only the total amount of those donations. They must also declare that, during the relevant reporting period, they did not accept anonymous political donations totalling $5,000 or more.

A nil submission is required if no such donation was received and accepted.
