 Online Election Advertising (OEA) may only be published by or on behalf of a candidate or a political party during the campaign period, if a declaration by the candidate, his election agent, or the political party is submitted to the Returning Officer.

The first OEA declaration to the Returning Officer must be made within 12 hours after the start of the campaign period. The declaration must set out:

- Particulars of every OEA platform, online account or communication service maintained by or on behalf of the candidate on which OEA has been or is to be published; and
- Details of any paid OEA on each OEA platform, online account or communication service that has been or is to be published.

Thereafter, a declaration must be submitted to the Returning Officer at any time before an OEA is published.

You will need to provide all information to the fullest extent possible in your declaration. If required, the Returning Officer may contact you to seek clarifications or to request for additional information.

All OEA declarations will be made available for public viewing on the Elections Department website .
