

PRESS RELEASE

EXHIBITION OF THE REGISTERS OF ELECTORS

The revised Registers of Electors for the 23 Constituencies (14 Group Representation Constituencies and 9 Single Member Constituencies) are currently open for public inspection at the Elections Department and 104 Community Centres/Clubs (Inspection Centres) in Singapore, and the 8 Singapore diplomatic missions (Overseas Registration Centre) in Canberra, London, Beijing, Tokyo, Washington, Hong Kong, Shanghai and San Francisco. Members of the public can also visit the Elections Department's website (<http://www.elections.gov.sg>) or the eCitizen Portal (www.ecitizen.gov.sg) to check their names in the Registers of Electors.

2 Singapore citizens who have yet to check the Registers of Electors are advised to do so before the Chinese New Year public holidays.

3 Overseas Singaporeans who wish to apply for registration to vote at any one of the 8 Singapore diplomatic missions mentioned above can find out more information about overseas voting from the Elections Department's website, where they can also download the form for "Application to be Overseas Elector". Applications must be submitted to Elections Department or any of the abovementioned missions by 6 February 2006, either by hand or by registered post.
