

26 April 2010

On 26 April 2010, Parliament passed amendments to the Constitution. Among other things, the Amendment Bill introduced refinements to the framework for Non-Constituency Members of Parliament (NCMPs) and Nominated Members of Parliament (NMPs) – thereby increasing the maximum number of NCMPs that Parliament may have from 6 to 9 and abolishing the need for a resolution to be passed by Parliament before NMPs may be appointed.
