The Registers of Electors have been certified on 15 Apr 2019 and are available for public inspection. There are a total of 2,594,740 electors in the registers.

- 2 Singapore Citizens may check their particulars in the registers:
- a. Online at the Elections Department website (<https://www.eld.gov.sg/online.html>);
 - b. At community centres/clubs with their NRIC/passport;
 - c. At Singapore overseas missions that serve as overseas registration centres with their NRIC/passport as listed in Annex A; and

Restoration of name to registers

3 Persons whose names were removed from the Registers of Electors for failing to vote at a past election may still apply to have their names restored to the registers, so that they can vote at future elections. They are encouraged to apply early as no applications for restoration will be processed during the period from the date the Writ for an election is issued until after Nomination Day if the election is not contested, or until after Polling Day if a poll is to be taken.

Registration as overseas elector

4 Re-registration as an overseas elector is required with each preparation of the registers. Overseas Singaporeans, whose names are listed in the Registers of Electors and have resided in Singapore for an aggregate of at least 30 days during the 3-year period between 1 Feb 2016 and 31 Jan 2019, may continue to register as overseas electors to vote at one of the designated overseas polling stations if they have not done so after 1 Feb 2019.

5 Application for registration as an overseas elector is open all-year-round. However, in accordance with the law, applications will not be processed during the period from the 3rd day after the Writ for an election is issued until after Nomination Day if the election is uncontested, or until after Polling Day if a poll is to be taken.
