Written Reply to Parliamentary Question on the number of voters' names expunged in each constituency since the 2020 General Election after the revision of the Registers of Electors

Question:

Ms Hazel Poa: To ask the Prime Minister in the revision of the Registers of Electors (a) how many voters' names have been expunged in each constituency since the 2020 General Election because of (i) death (ii) non-voting (iii) loss of citizenship (iv) serving a sentence of imprisonment and (v) other reasons respectively; and (b) how many voters' names have been added in each constituency after (i) attaining age 21 (ii) registering as a Singapore citizen (iii) completing a sentence of imprisonment and (iv) other reasons respectively.

Written Reply by Mr Chan Chun Sing, Minister of Education, for the Prime Minister:

The Registers of Electors (REs) were certified on 20 Jul 2023. There are a total of 2,709,455 electors in the registers, which is 58,020 more than the 2,651,435 electors at General Election 2020 (GE2020). The net change by Electoral Division is provided in Table A. This information on the number of electors at each election and after each revision of the REs is available on the Elections Department website (<https://www.eld.gov.sg>). We do not track the changes in the number of electors based on the profiles requested by the Member.
